Roundham Point. Paignton enjoys a high reputation among watering places as suitable for invalids, owing to the salubrity of its air and the splendid sandy beach two miles in extent. Bathing may be safely indulged in. Roundham Point separates Paignton from Goodrington Sands, and has a fine stretch of sand which is a pure delight to children. The point was the scene of the wreck of H.M.S. "Vengeance."

*Thought you were coming up in the train, if you we will come, if not, will you let me see 5 Butter & we will come another day.
Very busy. Glad you had a fine time in London.
Very windy & cold here
now. Love from all.*
